TODDLER TOWN
FOR LITTLE LEARNERS
5 YEARS AND YOUNGER

Map the tribal territories of Southern Paiute, Northern Paiute, Washoe, and Western Shoshone in Nevada.

Celebrate author Traci Sorell's native language by listening to the story: We Are Grateful: Otsaliheliga, and learn new words from the Cherokee language.

Enjoy Chickasaw author Lynn Moroney's take on Te Ata's retelling of Baby Rattlesnake, and make your own baby rattlesnake!

Enjoy Ezra Jack Keats classic: The Snowy Day, and create your own snowy scene.

DISCOVERY LAB

Weave paper baskets inspired by the Moapa Band of Paiute Indian tribes and create beadwork inspired by Western Shoshone tribes.

Create mixed media art pieces inspired by contemporary Native American artists Frank Buffalo Hyde and Wendy Red Star.

Learn about the Paiute Legend of the North Star, and make your own version of the Nah'gah!

Create different versions of snowflakes and learn about the science behind snow!

PATENTS PENDING
SPONSORED BY THE ANDREW FAMILY FOUNDATION

In celebration of Native American Heritage Month, explore a 3D printed topographical map of Nevada highlighting the traditional lands of Nevada's 32 Indian Reservations and colonies.

Celebrate the life of Northern Paiute Author, activist and educator, Sarah Winnemucca Hopkins. Her story: Life Among the Paiutes, is considered the first known autobiography written by a Native American woman.

Investigate images of rock writing from Nevada and interpret these ancient symbols.

Snow is a form of ice. Learn about the "cool" properties of water and observe it in its different states of matter.

YOUNG AT ART

In honor of Native American Heritage Month, learn about Nevada's indigenous community. Create art inspired by Washoe, Northern Paiute, Southern Paiute, and Western Shoshone artists.

Learn about contemporary artist, Jaune Quick-to-See Smith, and design a sculpture inspired by her incorporation of nature in art.

Explore Native American mythology paintings and recreate a painting of these iconic images.

Join as we celebrate winter wonders and create a snow globe.

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

NOVEMBER

Join DISCOVERY in celebrating Native American Heritage Month, a time to acknowledge the many contributions of Native People and celebrate their cultures, traditions, and histories. Weave paper baskets inspired by Moapa Band of Paiute Indian tribes, investigate images of rock writing from Nevada, create mixed media art inspired by contemporary Native American artists and more!
