

Discovery Children’s Museum Las Vegas Donor Privacy Policy

Our Commitment to Our Donors

Discovery Children’s Museum (“the Museum,” “we,” or “us”) is committed to respecting the privacy rights of its financial and in-kind donors, regardless the method of donation. When you make a financial or in-kind donation, you provide your name and contact information. Financial donors also provide standard payment information, which often includes credit card data. The following information outlines our privacy policy and details the measures taken to protect your privacy as donors. You may find our general privacy policy online.

We have implemented security measures to keep your personal information safe. Your personal information is contained behind a secure network and is only accessible to limited numbers of employees. We protect the security of donations made via credit card using measures such as encryption, network firewalls, and access controls.

We do not sell, share, or trade donors’ personal information with any other entity. We do not send mailings on behalf of other organizations.

Your personal information is used to process donations and generate receipts. To opt-out of receiving correspondence, electronic or otherwise, or update your personal information, you may contact us via one of the following options:
